

AUBURN ARTS COMMISSION

Special Meeting

Monday, January 6, 2014

Following a potluck supper, a special meeting of the Auburn Arts Commission was held at the home of Tim Grayson on January 6, 2014. Present were Lee Buckingham, April Maynard, Kaz Huetten, Terri Goodman, Tim Grayson, Frank Ordaz, and Joyce Silva. A quorum was established and the meeting was opened by Chair Lee Buckingham at 6:50 pm.

Public Comment: Kaz distributed a copy of a newspaper article regarding empty store space used for art to be discussed at a future meeting.

Old Business:

Pocket Park at the corner of High and Lewis Streets

Kaz presented a simple design that included a water spot and a small creek. There was general discussion regarding the purpose of the land as well as the design presented by Kaz and the design presented at the last meeting by Jeff Ambrosia. A committee consisting of Kaz, Lee and Frank was formed to come up with a design for the park. It was agreed that we would like mosaics in both the park and the bathrooms.

A motion was made by April and seconded by Frank to further consider design elements for the park located at High and Lewis Streets to the subcommittee to bring back to the January 15 regular meeting. All in favor, motion passed.

Arts in the Park

Do we postpone this event, eliminate it or explore integrating with the Auburn Wine and Festival. Further discussion on this subject was tabled to the next meeting

Correspondence: Frank would like to write an article for the Auburn Journal on the Arts Commission and what we do and are doing. The commissioners approved with the condition that we all approve what he writes prior to his submitting it.

Lee asked that everyone submit subjects they would like to discuss to him via e-mail for the agenda of the next regular meeting scheduled for January 15.

Terri advised that Roseville has some very attractive mosaic benches and suggested this might be a good way to connect Old Town and Down Town.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:40 pm.

Respectfully Submitted

Joyce Silva, Secretary